Little business was transacted beyond the introduction of bills. Resolutions calling upon the secretary of the treasury for information concerning the recent bond issue of the government came up, but in the absence of Aldrich, their consideration was postponed until another day.

Tillman introduced a resolution instructing the committee on finance to investigate the recent bond issue, but the absence of Aldrich will be urged as the reason why they also should not be acted upon today.

The house adjourned at 12:10 until Thursday without transacting any business beyond the introduction of bills. It was stated authoritatively that the house committee will not be announced this week.

In the senate today Platte, of New York, introduced a bill for national supervision of corporations. It establishes a bureau of incorporation, which shall hold supervision over corporations whose business is carried on in two or more states.

To Helen.

Helen, thy beauty is to me
Like those Naxos barks of yore,
That gently o'er a perfumed sea
The weary, wayworn wanderer bore
To his own native shore.

On desperate seas long wont to roam
Thy hyacinth hair, thy classic face,
Thy Naiad airs, have brought me home
To the glory that was Greece,
And the grandeur that was Rome.

Lo! in your brilliant window niche
Hoy statuelike I see thee stand,
The agate lamp within thy hand!
Ah, Psyche, from the regions which Are Holy Land!

—Edgar Allan Poe.

BANKS REOPENING.

Effects of Financial Flurry Are Gradually Passing Away.

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 10.—Arrangements were practically completed today for the reopening tomorrow of the Stockyards Bank of Commerce, deposits $250,000, which failed last week following the closing of the National Bank of Commerce. The institution will be bought outright from the receiver of the National Bank of Commerce. This will be the second bank to resume since the flurry last week.

The directors of the National Bank of Commerce are working hard on a plan for the reorganization of that bank and hope to make a sufficiently good showing.

Coming In, Going Out.

New York, Dec. 10.—While the banks are bringing millions in money into the United States, the foreign born population of the country is sending millions out. The foreign postal order business of the New York postoffice last month was $1,200,000 in excess of the business for the corresponding month last year. This year's figures are $6,631,837, while the figures for November, 1906, were $5,490,125. There is every indication that the Christmas business of the foreign postal order department of the postoffice will be much larger this year than ever before.

Morris McKnight Dead.

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 10.—Morris McKnight, formerly a leading jockey on western tracks, died here today, aged 31 years, of consumption. Three winters ago McKnight was starter at Hot Springs, Oakland track, and for six years he was assistant starter under "Dick" Dwyer.

Consider Report.

Washington, Dec. 10.—The forthcoming report of the inland waterways commission to the president was discussed today at a meeting of members of that body. Some progress was made toward completion, but there is yet to be done considerable work before the report will be in shape for presentation. Upon it is to be based legislation that will empower the commission to carry out the plans for whose fulfillment the body was created.

WINDOW GLASS WORKERS GAIN INCREASE IN WAGES.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 10.—The Amalgamated Window Glass Workers of America, have obtained a twelve per cent increase in wages. The agreement is the result of several months' negotiation and will doubtless end at once the strike the glass workers.
